Jesus and The Rich Guys

Luke 18:18-30; Luke 19:1-10

Similarities between the rich ruler and Zacchaeus:

- Both men were seekers of Jesus (Lk. 18:18; Lk. 19:2-3).
- Both men were rich (Lk. 18:23; Lk. 19:2).
- Both men were willingly receptive of Jesus (Lk. 18:18; Lk. 19:6).
- Both men were seeking eternal life (Lk. 18:18; Lk. 19:8-10).

Differences between the rich ruler and Zacchaeus:

- The rich young ruler was not willing to share his riches with others less fortunate (deny himself - Matt. 16:24), in order to have riches in heaven and follow Jesus (Lk. 18:22).
- In contrast, Zacchaeus was willing to deny self and share his riches with those less fortunate and restore anything taken by false accusation (Lk. 19:8).
- The rich young ruler was very sorrowful – but not to the point of sincerely repenting of his selfishness. His was a worldly sorrow (Lk. 18:23; cf. 2 Cor. 7:10).
- In contrast, Zacchaeus was sorrowful to the point of sincerely repenting of anything broken in his life – even to the point of restoring to individuals anything falsely taken. His was a godly sorrow (Lk. 19:8-9; cf. 2 Cor. 7:9-10).

HUMBLE PIE

The Rich Ruler

Luke 18

18 A certain ruler asked him, "Good teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?"<sup>19</sup> "Why do you call me good?" Jesus answered. "No one is good—except God alone. <sup>20</sup> You know the commandments: 'You shall not commit adultery, you shall not murder, you shall not steal, you shall not give false testimony, honor your father and mother.'" <sup>21</sup> "All these I have kept since I was a boy," he said. <sup>22</sup> When Jesus heard this, he said to him, "You still lack one thing. Sell everything you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow me." <sup>23</sup> When he heard this, he became very sad, because he was very wealthy. <sup>24</sup> Jesus looked at him and said, "How hard it is for the rich to enter the kingdom of God! <sup>25</sup> Indeed, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of God." <sup>26</sup> Those who heard this asked, "Who then can be saved?" <sup>27</sup> Jesus replied, "What is impossible with man is possible with God." <sup>28</sup> Peter said to him, "We have left all we had to follow you!" <sup>29</sup> "Truly I tell you," Jesus said to them, "no one who has left home or wife or brothers or sisters or parents or children for the sake of the kingdom of God <sup>30</sup> will fail to receive many times as much in this age, and in the age to come eternal life."

Zacchaeus the Tax Collector

Luke 19

1 Jesus entered Jericho and was passing through. 2 A man was there by the name of Zacchaeus; he was a chief tax collector and was wealthy. 3 He wanted to see who Jesus was, but because he was short he could not see over the crowd. 4 So he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore-fig tree to see him, since Jesus was coming that way. <sup>5</sup> When Jesus reached the spot, he looked up and said to him, "Zacchaeus, come down immediately. I must stay at your house today." 6 So he came down at once and welcomed him gladly. <sup>7</sup> All the people saw this and began to mutter, "He has gone to be the guest of a sinner." <sup>8</sup> But Zacchaeus stood up and said to the Lord, "Look, Lord! Here and now I give half of my possessions to the poor, and if I have cheated anybody out of anything, I will pay back four times the amount." <sup>9</sup> Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house, because this man, too, is a son of Abraham. <sup>10</sup> For the Son of Man came to seek and to save the lost."
